

● ARE YOUR ENGINEERS BUSINESS SAVVY?

Our research finds that most engineering companies underperform financially due to leakages. Leakages ruin most of the profit margins.

The root cause of Leakages is found in the limited commercial awareness and acting within engineering companies.

Our unique Business Savvy Team Program rapidly:

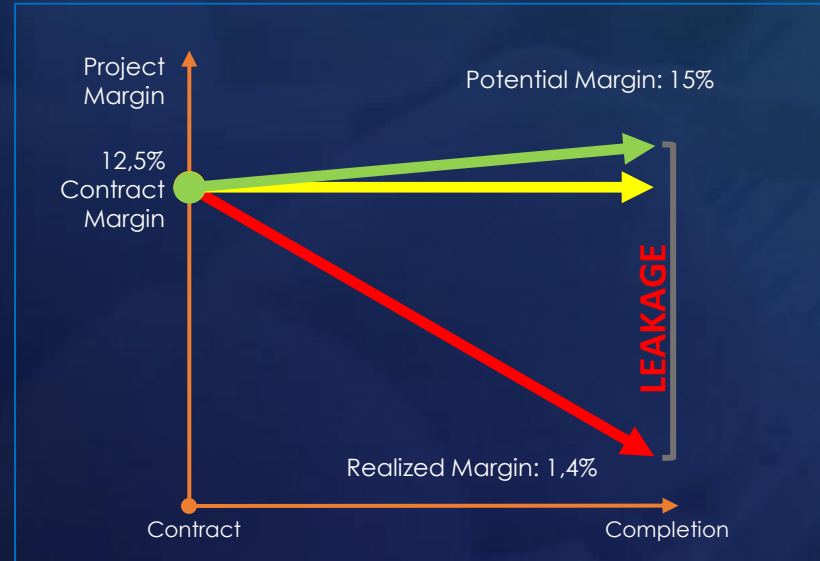

- Builds bottom-up business insights
- Engages employees in business economics
- Teams commit themselves to business targets
- Empowers teams to act commercially fully aligned with strategy.
